Just now it seems that the Blue Eagle has good reasons for being blue.

It's hard to convince some people that honesty is the best policy and that they've got it.

One pleasing feature of radio sermons is that there is no collect plate passed.

Citizens who know the laws which they will obey have an amazing variety to select from.

A German professor declares that earth winds can sing. Some think that they can.

Our personal experience reveals that even lightning or with an original attack.

An escaped slave was found playing in a St. Louis jazz orchestra.
There were others there.

It is prudent to put a little sugar into what we say and take a little salt with what we hear.

If you don't think yourself a better than your neighbors, you have an inferiority complex.

Another paradox is that many who consider themselves great leaders will follow a little golf ball all day.

Mohammedan东南西北 are determined to see that their Mosques are more numerous. The male attitude on the subject has not been revealed.

Italian comedians are not allowed to crack jokes about the army.
It appears that they even are expected to take second lieutenants seriously.

SEVENTY YEARS AGO

Just 70 years ago this month the Southern struggle to an end, after four years of hostilities, in which 350,000 Union soldiers and 150,000 Confederates lost their lives, came to the best estimates available.

The Confederate losses may have been considerably greater than stated at that time.

The total number of Union troops engaged is placed at 128,000, while the number of Confederates is variously estimated at from 700,000 to 900,000.

Lee surrendered to Grant at Appomattox on April 9, 1865.
It is estimated that the North had more men than the South, but the South had one-fourth of the men.

It is interesting to note in passing that at the close of the Civil War the United States had about one-half as much as we are spending in a single year at present time.

And we went out, knowing whether he went.

In those two sentences, one from the Old Testament, one from the New, you have the real story of Abraham's life.

At all times, however, the men who took part in several important battles are still alive. All the high ranking officers on both sides are dead.

While the distressing times through which we have passed have been hard, we may be thankful to have escaped the misery which prevailed, especially in the South, during the dark days of the Sixties.

What shall thy name be?
I only know he is heard God's voice and came.

He lived; he died; I do not know his name.

According to previous arrangements, the children and friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Helms of South Elba, will be here Sunday, April 7th, 1935, to bid adieu to the remains of their beloved son.
Mr. and Mrs. Helms, and six children, were born ten children;
and all are boys.

Alfred, the firstborn, was killed in a hunting accident in 1918.

There was strife between the brothers of Abraham's cattle and the herdsman of Lot's cattle.

At noon a long table was placed in the yard and everybody enjoyed the meal.

About People And Things

Instead, Prof. Dixon says he will have five members of the school class speak upon subjects of interest pertaining to live matters of interest locally. Off hand, I would say that this will be quite an improvement. At least, it will break the monotony.

REFUGEE CHECKS—Dred Smith keeps a daily record of the weather. Looking back, Mr. Smith finds that last year Mr. Smith had more days in Elba than the latest of the season. A very light frost was visible on Tuesday morning of this week, but it was not hard enough to stop the advance to growing vegetation. However, Sunday morning's heavy rain and subsequent flooding have been detrimental to cotton that is up and to gardens in the open flat country. Hot tubers and carrots are still in, though. Some swarms are still in the same place. Mr. Jones reports that Raymond Smith, a planter near him, west of town, recently captured a swarm from a post on the bank of a ditch, just a few days apart from the time in said county.

BEES REPEAT—The Rev. J. A. Jones says another big swarm has been captured. It is said to have swarmed twice in the same place. Mr. Jones reports that Raymond Smith, a planter near him, west of town, recently captured a swarm from a post on the bank of a ditch, just a few days apart from the time in said county.

Mr. Jones said the bees will be sold to an improver. At least, it will be break the monotony.
